

Bruce Nixon Bio

Bruce Nixon has been coaching youth basketball for over 30 years. He started coaching in GABL in 1989, and has remained an enthusiastic teacher of the game and active coach of GABL teams for 23 years. This is Bruce Nixon's first year coaching in the GABL Elite Program. Bruce is the founder and director of Flames Basketball Camp, a basketball camp that teaches with a strong focus on fundamentals, using unique and memorable teaching methods that make the learning process fun for kids. Bruce also has developed instructional DVDs that are designed to help kids, parents, and coaches learn to play and coach the game. For more information on the Flames Basketball Program and his instructional DVDs you can visit his website at howtocoachyouthbasketball.com. Coach Nixon understands the tremendous opportunity and responsibility that coaching youth basketball provides to have a positive impact on the future of youth players. He works with a strong energy and passion to teach each player to be successful.
